Fells Point Ghost Tour

October 23, 2009

---

Picture Fell's Point in Baltimore, Md. as it was: a rowdy seaport town, the birthplace of the sleek and dangerous clipper ship, its streets full of sailors from foreign lands spilling off ships, immigrants anxious to start a new life, ladies of the night looking to make ends meet, and all the characters looking to make a living off the maritime industry. Given this explosive combination, is it any wonder that many spirits remained behind? Join us under the cover of night to explore the many haunted pubs, shops and residences. But don't stray too far from the group because you never know when you'll find yourself face-to-face with the unknown.

Native American Museum

November 13, 2009

---

The National Museum of the American Indian is the 16th museum of the Smithsonian Institution. It is the first national museum dedicated to the preservation, study and exhibition of the life, languages, literature, history and arts of Native Americans. Established by an act of Congress in 1989, the museum works in collaboration with the Native peoples of the Western Hemisphere to protect and foster their cultures by reaffirming traditions and beliefs, encouraging contemporary artistic expression, and empowering the Indian voice.

SGA Info sessions

September 21-25, 2009

---

During the week of September 21-25, each campus will host information sessions to educate students about the roles and responsibilities of each campus SGA. These sessions are designed to assist students with understanding the role they have in college governance and the responsibility associated with holding an elected position in the Student Government Association.

Habitat for Humanity

September 24, 2009

---

Sandtown Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization that exists to facilitate the re-building of affordable housing in west Baltimore. On Thursday, September 24, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., a group of 35 students, faculty and staff will join other volunteers at Sandtown to help build a home for a deserving family.

Individuals from all three campuses are encouraged to participate. A registration form will be available on the first day of classes in the Student Life Office on each campus. No prior experience is necessary. For more information, contact Toni Aho, Leadership & Civic Engagement Administrator: taho@ccbcmd.edu

Outdoor Movie Night

September 25, 2009

---

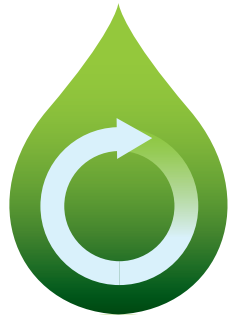

Take advantage of watching a great movie under the stars on your campus. The three main campuses will host a movie night beginning at 7 p.m., featuring a recently released movie. Bring a blanket, pack a picnic, bring the family or a date, and enjoy the movie.

SGA Elections

---

Elections for all SGA positions will be held on each campus and voting booths will be open 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. and 5 – 7:30 p.m. September 28 and 29.

Get Involved Fairs

Fall 2009

Have an idea? Want to get involved but don't know how? Here is your chance! The Office of Student Life will be hosting "Get Involved Fairs" on each of the main campuses. This is your opportunity to visit each club and organization, and see what great events are planned for your campus and the college. Each student will be able to choose what clubs or organizations they would like to be involved in. Make sure to put this event on your calendar and stop by the Office of Student Life for more details.

Leadership Retreat

---

This is a leadership retreat intended for new club and organization leaders, SGA leaders, and others interested in becoming more comfortable with their leadership skills. We will participate in trust-building exercises in the great outdoors, including a low-ropes course and team building exercises. Students will learn effective communication and problem solving skills.

Maryland Science Center

The Office of Student Life sponsors CCBC Night at the Maryland Science Center. All CCBC students, faculty, and staff tickets are free with a valid CCBC ID and all guest tickets are only $1.00 with a limit of 5 per person.

The Maryland Science Center offers guests the chance to walk among Dinosaurs and learn from over a dozen full- sized dinosaurs as they roam the Edward St. John Hall - home to Dinosaur Mysteries. Walk under, over, and through a landscape filled with dig pits, a field lab, excavation sites, and other areas of discovery. In addition, follow the Blue Crab - one of the region's most important residents and the spotlight of an exhibit focusing on the Chesapeake Bay and its importance to Maryland. Then be prepared to experience IMAX, a five-story screen with 38 speaker surround sound to inundate all of your senses.

New York City Trip and Christmas Spectacular featuring the Rockettes December 18, 2009

The Student Life Office will be sponsoring a trip to the Big Apple – NYC! Whether you just want a day to explore this great city or attend the Radio City Music Hall Christmas Spectacular featuring the world famous Rockettes, this trip is for you.

Tickets for the Rockettes are included and can be purchased through the Office of Student Life.

This holiday season, experience the exhilaration and wonder of the Radio City Christmas Spectacular starring the world-famous Radio City Rockettes!

Both dazzlingly grand and genuinely moving, the Christmas Spectacular is an unparalleled show featuring the Rockettes' signature eye-high kicks and precision choreography in multiple show-stopping numbers that will delight the whole family!
